Building a career foundation

The connections Yaw forged here at Hofstra opened doors for him to work with the best in the industry in news, sports, and beyond. "Thanks to the mentorship I received at the Herbert School, I've had 12 internships, including with WABC, WNBC-TV, NBA on TNT, Fox Sports, and Fox News," he said. "But I know there will be someone who comes along and gets even more internships and more potential job opportunities than I did. Why? Because that's what Hofstra does for you."
