Graduate student, New York University

At the University of New Hampshire's campus in Manchester, you'll build new connections, new skills and new opportunities to shape your future. UNH Manchester offers affordable, career-driven majors in today's most high demand fields, from business to biotech to homeland security. Within six months of graduation, 92% of UNH Manchester's class of 2024 were employed or pursuing graduate degrees. That's because internships, research and hands-on learning in the classroom and in the field prepare our grads for success in careers they care about.

Your new path starts here.

Apply by November 15 for fall 2025 early action.
