

With a nationally-recognized internship model, a breathtaking seaside campus, and a close-knit community, it's no secret why Endicott is a special place for so many students. But don't take our word for it—come visit our home this summer and see for yourself. It's time to create your Endicott story.

Ways to visit:

A Virtual Admission Interview is a great opportunity to connect with a member of the admission staff.

Can't make it to campus? A student-guided Virtual Tour will show you all that Endicott has to offer.

Tours are offered Monday through Friday throughout the summer, and on two Saturdays, June 29 & July 27.

Coming in August, Virtual Academic Sessions are a great way to meet the deans and learn more about your intended program of study.

Learn about the admission process and have your questions answered at an Information Session. Virtual and in-person options available.

Tuesdays this summer, join us for a Seaside Luncheon—a special summer event where we provide a tour, lunch, and the chance to mingle with members of the Endicott community.
